

Holt County Sentinel.

Oregon, Missouri.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAR. 1, 1867.

After much discussion, and some opposition the bill for granting aid for the completion of the Platte Country Railroad, passed the Senate on Tuesday, the 21st ult. The vote stood ayes, 22; noes, 9.

Prof. O. S. Fowler, of New York, we observe, is announced to lecture at St. Joseph next week, on "Life, its Laws, Organs, Functions, and Improvements." His lectures will no doubt attract large audiences.

Hon. I. C. DICK has our thanks for a great number of legislative documents. From the huge piles we noticed at the post office, we judge the people are generally supplied with them. It is the intention that they should be.

FACTS and incidents which any of the citizens of Holt county may have in their possession, which it is deemed proper should be incorporated in the prize essay, should be sent to this office as soon as possible, that they may be furnished to those who desire to compete for the prize. Let every one who has anything of interest touching any locality, or event in the county history, contribute his mite to this great work.

Bounty to the M. S. M.
The following note from Colonel McClurg denotes that Congress is inclined to do justice to the M. S. M. at last:

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.,
February 15, 1867.
Editor of the Missouri State Times:
DEAR SIR: To-day a bounty bill passed the House, giving to soldiers eight and one-third dollars per month, for time of service.

The members from Missouri agreed upon an amendment, which was offered by Mr. Benjamin, which embraces the Missouri State Militia, and which passed without opposition, the Chairman of the Military Committee, Gen. Schenck, making no opposition. Should the bounty bill pass the Senate, the just claims of the M. S. M. will have been at last recognized. Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. W. McCLURG.

Let it be understood that this is not yet a law. The bill has a hard road to travel yet before it is a law. We will advise our soldier friends of its passage when it occurs.

A New Paper—Do Religious Papers Exchange with Secular Papers?
We have received a copy of a religious journal called "The Church Union," published at New York City. It claims as its object, the unity of the church—a cause that to our mind, should receive the earnest endorsement of all true Christians.

We would gratefully receive the above paper as an exchange, but presume that, as with a number of other religious papers, if we should make an effort in this direction, it would end in our getting snubbed. A single copy, as in this instance, is sometimes received, for the purpose of being noticed, after which we see no more of the paper. A question with us is whether the cause of Christianity is advanced by cheating a printer; and whether the editorial and typographical fraternity is to be denied the bread of life.

Marrying from Patriotic Motives.
A friend of ours tells the following, which we consider too good to be wasted:

While traveling through northwest Missouri not long since, I met in a country town, an old acquaintance whom I had not seen for several years.

When I had last seen my friend, he was a confirmed old bachelor, loud and persistent in his railing against everything feminine. On meeting him I received, much to my surprise, an invitation to take tea with him, and form the acquaintance of his wife.

"What, Tom, you don't mean to say that you are married?" I exclaimed.

"Well," said he, "the fact is, somehow I did not get into the army during the rebellion, and I thought it was my duty to do something for the cause, and I concluded, after thinking the matter over, that I would sacrifice about as much as any of them by marrying some soldier's widow, and taking care of her."

Tom, I must say, seemed to enjoy his "duty" quite as well as could have been expected under the circumstances.

A Matter of Local Interest.
Laudable efforts are being made by the people of Oregon, and throughout Holt county, to advance the moral and religious sentiment and condition of the people, and it is truly gratifying to see these efforts crowned with at least partial success. While so good a work is progressing in morals and religion, we trust that it will not be considered impertinent should our attention be called to our interests in a financial character.

It is admitted by all that we have one of the most inviting counties in the west, and ought to expect and prepare for large accessions to our population during the next season and thereafter, and while we may look with pride to the decrease of crime and the manifest improvement in morals in our community, it should induce us to put forth exertions to induce immigrants that are seeking homes in Missouri to locate in our county. Our population should be increased by thousands, and it certainly will be if proper efforts are made. In view of accomplishing so desirable an end, can we not induce some of capitalists (instead of using their means in shaving and shynocking the people that are here) to appropriate some of their means in building residences, either for sale or rent, thereby accommodating those desiring to locate here? There is no question that Oregon would have doubled her population within the last three years could immigrants have obtained houses to have lived in; and surely prices paid as rent for dwellings in Oregon, are sufficiently remunerative, either in the city or county, and ought, it seems, to induce enterprising capitalists having the future prosperity of our city and county in view to at once put forth their exertions and means that would assuredly and amply compensate them by large interest on their investments, besides they would have the satisfaction of seeing our city and county doubled and thrived in population. We hope that we shall not have the mortification of again witnessing this spring, as heretofore, hundreds of families having to pass on by us to some other county, for no other reason than that they could obtain no houses to shelter in. If we could but induce thirty to forty industrious, enterprising, energetic immigrants from the east to locate here who know the wants and desires of those in the east desiring to immigrate, locate and build up prosperous and happy homes among us, they would be worth more to our county than a thousand of our shavens, do-nothing old fogies that "hang like an incubus" on the prosperity and advancement of our county, who exhibit no higher characteristic than the fabled dog in the manger.

While immigrant aid societies are being formed in counties east and west of us, nothing is being done to induce immigration here, and no place for them if they should come. Applications are being made daily for houses to live in, and hundreds are inquiring for farms to rent. We ask what can and ought to be done to advance the interest and prosperity of Holt county? More on the subject soon.
MARKLAND.

To School Officers.
SUB-DIRECTORS.

You are requested to make out before the first Monday in April, and return to your township clerk, an estimate, as near as you can, of all expenses connected with your schools. This will embrace the erection of new school houses and repairs to old ones; also the payment of your teacher, if you have not public money enough to continue the schools as long as you may desire.

You should remember also that if you do not have three months school in the year, that you cannot draw any public money.

TOWNSHIP BOARDS.
The law requires you to make out a map of your several townships, with the boundaries of all the districts distinctly marked upon it; for the reason that in no other way can the county clerk levy the necessary taxes upon the several school districts in the township.

The law also throws the care of all the school houses into your hands. Would it not be good policy to get the houses insured? If so, a tax must be thrown upon the several districts to cover this expense.

STEPHEN BLANCHARD.

Poor House.
ED. SENTINEL: I have noticed with much pleasure, of late, several articles in the SENTINEL urging the County Court to buy a farm on which to place the paupers of the county.

From the Records of the county, it appears that $554.07 have been paid during the past year for the support of paupers in the county. The above is, I suppose, to provide them with homes, food, and clothing. The medical bill for the paupers has amounted to $68.75. This last amount has, as is my opinion, been paid out in whole or in part arising from the poor provisions which have been made for their comfort. Putting these two items of expense together and we have $622.82.

Just think of it! Six hundred and twenty-two dollars and eighty-two cents being sunk in one year! Had these persons been put upon a farm under the direction of some judicious individual, all this, it is presumed, would have been saved, for the labor of the paupers would have supported them.

TAX PAYER.
Odd Fellows' Thanksgiving.
The following proclamation has been issued by the Grand Master of the R. W. Lodge of Missouri I. O. O. F., at his office in St. Louis:

To the Subordinate Lodges:
WHEREAS, James P. Sanders, M. W. Grand Sire, in pursuance of a resolution unanimously adopted by the R. W. Grand Lodge of the United States at its late session, has issued his Proclamation, directing the 26th day of April, A. D. 1867, "to be observed by the members of the Order throughout the general jurisdiction as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, and that they assemble on said day with their families in such manner and form of organization as their respective States Jurisdictions may prescribe, to render thanks to the ever living God for his manifest favor and protection to the Institution which we so much love and cherish, and especially for its unbroken unity through trials of unparalleled severity."

Now, therefore, I, Charles G. Mauro, M. W. Grand Master of the State of Missouri, do hereby fraternally recommend that the 26th day of April, A. D. 1867, be observed by the members of the Order in this Jurisdiction as a day of thanksgiving and joy, and that they and their families assemble on said day, at such time and place as their several Lodges may direct, and by appropriate exercises render thanks to Almighty God for the manifold blessings our beloved Order has received at His hands, and to implore His gracious care and protection upon it for the future.

Witness my hand, and the seal of the Grand Lodge, this 15th day of December, 1866.
C. G. MAURO,
Grand Master.

Attest—Charles C. Archer, Grand Secretary.

Women Suffrage.
A petition is in circulation in St. Louis, and it is said, has received "a considerable number of names of highly intelligent and respectable ladies," urging the General Assembly to strike the word male out of the Constitution of the State and extend to women the right of suffrage. To accommodate those of our lady readers who desire to have a hand in the movement we append the petition:

To the General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

GENTLEMEN: The undersigned, ladies of St. Louis, having observed among the proceedings of the Legislature, a proposition to amend the Constitution of our State by striking out the word "white," thus extending the right of suffrage to persons of color.

To this we make no objection, but it does not go far enough. We believe that all persons who are subject to the law, and taxed to support the Government, should have a voice in the selection of those who are to govern and legislate for them. This is simply an act of justice. As the law now stands, one-half of the population of the State are deprived of all expression of opinion upon subjects most vital to their welfare and happiness. Kansas has already conceded the right of women to the ballot, and we trust that Missouri will speedily follow her example.

We therefore pray that an amendment may be proposed striking out the word "male" and extending to women the right of suffrage—and, as in duty bound, your petitioners will ever pray.

Gen. R. C. Bradshaw has brought suit in the Circuit Court of Buchanan county, Mo., against W. M. Sherwood, clerk of the County Court, for not issuing to him a certificate of election to the office of County Collector, when he claimed to have received a majority of votes. The amount claimed is $20,000.

The proper Congressional Committee have come into the possession of the diary of John Wilkes Booth, which, it will be remembered, was not used in the trial of the conspirators. It shows conclusively that he was an agent of officers high in the Confederate government, and received money from them on more than one occasion. It further shows that the plan of the conspirators at one time was simply to kidnap Mr. Lincoln, and it implicates only Booth and Harold, directly, in his assassination. In the entry of Friday, April 21st, a week after the murder, he speaks of himself as an outcast and an assassin, with a broken leg, alone in a swamp, weighed down by guilt, and possibly beyond the forgiveness of God.

The Swartara arrived off the Washington Navy Yard on the 18th inst., with John H. Surratt, on board. A guard has been stationed at the wharf to prevent communication with those on board, excepting by high official permission.

A mysterious convention of Rebel Generals was in session at Louisville, Ky., on the 6th ult. Among the number present were Magruder, Humphrey Marshall, Duke, and about eighty others.

Reparator Capilli.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig; Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair, And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

Reparator Capilli. For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Repurator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Address,
